Kids in Tuvalu play on the truncks of fallen palm trees. Sometimes they wade through enkle-deep water on their way to school. They don't realize their island home is shrinking.

Tuvalu is a nation of nine tiny coural islands about halfway between Hawaii and Australia. When the daily oshean tides rise, most of Tuvalu is just 3 feet above water. Sand washes away from the beaches, and palm trees topple over on the shor. Many scientists believe the shrinking is due to climate change.

Задача 8

Сопоставьте имена литературных героев и краткое описание сюжета книги.

Character's name	Plot summary
<input type="text"/>	A. A curious girl finds herself entangled in a new adventure which defies logic and reason. She enters a world where you stand still by running and walk away from things to move closer to them. She encounters an array of peculiar characters, each revealing a piece of the puzzle that will help her understand this strange place, and herself.
<input type="text"/>	B. The story is the perfect blend of pure mystery and signature Gothic atmosphere. When an important piece of correspondence goes missing, a skillful investigator is called upon to unravel the mystery and teach the thief an important lesson. The investigator methodically goes through the list of suspects until he finds the real criminal.
<input type="text"/>	C. Four unruly siblings drive away every nanny that steps through their door. Until a very special nanny arrives, one who combines structure and discipline with whimsy and music. She helps the children discover that chores can be fun and any mundane activity can become an adventure, if you use your imagination.
<input type="text"/>	D. Mistreated and neglected by her parents, our young heroine seeks solace in books. Due to her boundless love of literature, she is exceptionally smart, which gets overlooked at school. However, she perseveres and finds friends and a new family in the end.
<input type="text"/>	E. This novel in verse is written in the traditional Native American style. Set against the backdrop of wild North American nature, this epic saga mixes a tragic love story with elements of magical realism. Our hero has to fight for his right to live as a free man, and to protect the woman he loves.
<input type="text"/>	F. A teenage girl is persuaded to become an adoptive mother to a gang of neglected boys. Little does she know that by agreeing to this, she commits herself to a life of adventure and danger. In the end she has to decide what matters most: her real family or her adopted one.

<input type="text"/>	G. Raised by servants and neglected by parents, our heroine has to face the harsh reality when her parents die and she is sent to live with relatives who don't care for her. She can't make friends in her new home, but takes refuge in an enchanted garden, much like the one she had in her childhood home. Exploring the garden helps her find friends and become a better person.
<input type="text"/>	H. Set against the backdrop of an important holiday, this classic tale teaches us about the importance of self-sacrifice. A young married couple has fallen on hard times, yet they are willing to go to the extremes to make each other happy this holiday season. The gifts that they finally buy each other reveal an important truth about their relationship.
<input type="text"/>	I. Born into a world of poverty and hardship, our hero has to take care of himself from a very young age. He slaves away at a workhouse until he is taken on as an apprentice of a cruel man who abuses the boy. One day, the boy escapes and heads to London in search of a better life - and what a long and daring search it will be.
<input type="text"/>	J. After untangling a web of clues, rumors and shady characters, our hero joins a daring mission to a strange new island. Suspicion and greed turn an already dangerous adventure into a deadly one. Here, like in any epic quest, the journey is more important than the destination.
